

Women, Microfinance and Afghanistan

Wednesday, January 20, 2010

11:30 am to 1:00 pm

in Room N109, Schulich School of Business, York University

Featuring Ruth Dueck Mbeba, Microfinance Consultant, MEDA and
Marilyn Friedmann, (Interim) Vice President, Marketing & Resource Development, MEDA

An interactive presentation and discussion of current work in Afghanistan by MEDA – Mennonite Economic Development Associates – to support women’s empowerment through economic development.

MEDA is unleashing entrepreneurship among enterprising women in Afghanistan through the Afghanistan Challenge, conducted in collaboration with the Government of Canada. The Afghanistan Challenge is aimed at directly engaging Canadians in the Afghanistan development effort.

